BLUE AND GRAY AT MANASSAS

Former Foes March Across Fields
Once Flowing With Gore—Spectacle Unique in History.

Manassas, Va., July 21.—The Blue and Gray marched across the fields of Manassas to meet each other again today. This incident, unique in history, the meeting of Federal and Confederate veterans on the field where they fought a mighty battle just fifty years ago, attracted as witnesses the president of the United States, the governor of Virginia, the home of the Confederate capital, and visitors from many states.

It was the crowning feature of the Manassas Peace Jubilee and Reunion which began last Sunday with a sermon on the court house lawn by Rev. H. N. Couden, chaplain of the House of Representatives, who lost his sight while serving in the Union ranks.

President Taft and Gov. Mann long ago had accepted invitations to be the guests of honor of the day, to review the lines of gray-haired veterans and make addresses in the afternoon. In the evening they met the old soldiers and other visitors at a public reception.

The following program had been arranged for the day:

9 a. m.—Veterans in blue and gray assemble at Henry House, on battlefield.

10 a. m.—Addresses of Welcome by Col. Edmund Berkeley, 8th Virginia, and United States Senator Thomas S. Martin, of Virginia.

Responses by Gen. John E. Gilham, commander in chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, and General George W. Gordon, grand commander of the United Confederate Veterans.

Presentation of souvenir badges by Col. Robert H. Thompson, of Washington.

Noon—Veterans marshaled in review, and the men in the blue and the gray clasp hands.

1 p. m.—Luncheon.

2 p. m.—Return to Manassas.

4 p. m.—Forty-eight young women, representing the states of the Union, clasp hands, and, forming a circle, sing the Manassas National Jubilee Anthem.

4:30 p. m.—Addresses by the President of the United States and the governor of Virginia.

6:30 p. m.—Luncheon tendered to President Taft and Governor Mann by Mrs. Robert A. Porter at Annaburg.

7:30 p. m.—Public reception of the president and governor at Annaburg.

It was on July 21, 1861, just fifty years ago last Friday, that Bull Run, or the battle of Manassas, was fought. The Confederates under Johnson were accredited with a decisive victory over the union forces under McDowell, the defeat of the Federals leaving practically a clear road to Washington for the Confederates, it is said, had they chosen to continue their advance on the capital. This was the first real battle of the war, and its results awakened the North for the first time to a realization of what the secession of the Southern states meant. It was here that "Stonewall" Jackson gained the name which will be associated with his memory for all time.

In August, 1862, Manassas was again the scene of a bloody battle, Lee and Longstreet and Sykes, Reno and Reynolds fought to a draw, the battle lines being exactly the reverse of what they were the year before.

The Jubilee Reunion was planned by committees of the Grand Army of the Republic and the United Confederate Veterans. Interesting events have taken place each day this week, sessions of the national organization of "The Blue and the Gray and Their Sons" being held today.

The Manassas National Anthem, adopted by the committee, was written by Mrs. Mary Speed Mercer, of Elm City, N. C. This is the chorus: "America, all hail to thee. Thanks be to God who made us free.

North, South, East, West, hand clasped in hand, United we, thy children, stand."

What The Papers Say About Our Representatives!

Hon. M. F. Pogue For Speaker Says Dixon Journal.

Hon. M. F. Pogue, of Crittenden county, has been nominated by the legislative district of Crittenden and Livingston counties. Mr. Pogue has had considerable experience in legislative matters, and his district has shown good judgement in selecting him to represent them again. Mr. Pogue is honest, and will make a hard working, painstaking and efficient representative. We think he would make a good speaker, and we suggest his name to the democratic caucus for said position, the people of his district will surely elect him.—Dixon Journal.

M. F. Pogue Renominated.

Marion F. Pogue has been renominated by the Democrats for Representative from the Crittenden-Livingston district, and he will be welcomed back in the next House. He was one of the most influential members of the last House, being a member of the important Rules Committee. He has served several terms as Assistant Clerk of the House and is up to all angles of the legislative game.—Louisville Times.

The Democrats of Livingston and Crittenden counties have acted very wisely in nominating Hon. M. F. Pogue to again serve them in the House of the next Kentucky Legislature. With a thorough knowledge of his duties, and a man of the purest honor and of splendid ability, he is just the man that the people need to serve them at Frankfort, and if he is not elected, the people of his district will never regret it but once. Here's to Pogue!—Cadiz Record.

TWINS MARRY TWINS

Woe Different Flowers So As To Distinguish Each Other.

Austin, Tex.,—Missouri twins married Texas twins at San Marcos, thirteen miles south of here. The brides were Alma and Alta Moore and the bridegrooms were Leland and Loran Tablor, of Adrian, Mo. An interesting feature of the wedding is that the brides resembled each other so closely that intimate friends cannot tell them apart and the bridegrooms look as much alike as two peas. The brides were dressed alike, as were the bridegrooms. To distinguish one from the other different flowers were worn. The two couples left together on a bridal trip and will be at home in Adrian, Mo., in about two weeks. They will occupy adjoining new houses exactly alike.

The circumstances of the courtship are romantic. The young men heard about a year ago of the twin girls and this led to correspondence and exchange of photographs. Last Christmas the young men came to see the girls and became engaged.

Livingston Banner Items.

A general all round knock down and drag out accompanied with "razor carving" in real coon style was pulled off near Salem last Saturday night. When the smoke cleared away one negro was dead and several wounded and later several were under arrest awaiting the final action of Squire Stevens on the examining trial.

Bill and Harve Forman, Turner Blaine and Jim Thurman were landed safely in jail for killing Frank Moss near Salem last Saturday night. Blaine was turned loose Tuesday morning, he being only a witness, and the examining trial of the other three was set by Judge Clark for next Friday morning at seven o'clock.

H. V. McChesney is having a pretty nice little spell of malarial fever at the home of his father-in-law, Mr. T. D. Presnell, at whose home he and family are visiting. Then intended to have returned to their home in Frankfort last Wednesday but cannot do so until Mr. McChesney improves.

EX-EDITOR HONORED

Livingston County Man Gets Office at Frankfort at The Hands of Supt. Regenstein.

Frankfort, Ky., July 19.—State School Superintendent Regenstein today appointed Charles Ferguson, of Livingston Co., as first clerk in his office to succeed L. N. Taylor, who resigned to become superintendent of the Dayton Public Schools.

Ferguson taught for several years and was County School Superintendent of Livingston for four years and was Editor of the "Livingston Echo."

STOP TRAIN AND FIND LOST PURSE

Brakeman Walks Back Three Miles to Find Valuables Lost
By Texas Woman.

Trinidad, Col., July 21.—Mrs. R. M. Warden, of Dallas, Texas, while standing on the rear end of a Colorado Southern passenger train, yesterday dropped her purse containing diamonds valued at $3000. and $100. in money. The conductor was informed, and though the train had traveled more than three miles, a brakeman went back and found the purse.

Electrocution Popular.

Frankfort, July 21.—Special Bliver Locks, convicted in Jefferson county of the murder of wife, will be put to death in the electric chair at the Eddyville penitentiary on August the 22. Gov. Wilson today fixed this as the date for the execution of the court's order and the verdict of the jury. Unless there is some hitch, Locks will be the third man to meet death by electrocution for a crime committed in this State. Shay Penman, convicted in Lincoln county, is the next man to die in the chair. Penman is to be electrocuted on August 5. No application for the commutation of the death sentence imposed on Locks, but it is expected that before the time of his electrocution comes there will be an application asking for a commutation of the death sentence.

THE RECIPROCITY BILL PASSES

By Overwhelming Majority of 53
to 27—President Taft's Efforts Proved Successful.

Washington, July 22.—After a fight lasting more than a year, President Taft succeeded in getting through the Senate an amended reciprocity bill that will tear down the tariff walls between this country and Canada.

The vote in the Senate was 53 for the bill to 27 against it. The final vote following the defeat of all the amendments in rapid order. On the final vote the measure's opponents were able to muster more votes than in the voting on the amendments.

Both Kentucky Senators voted for the bill. Senator Paynter surprised the prophets by voting consistently against all amendments and in favor of the bill on final passage.

The measure, however, cannot become a law until next Wednesday, as the House adjourned at 12:09 o'clock until that time. The bill must be returned to the House for engrossment before it can be signed by the President.
